Niels Hansen and Eva Leota Hochstrasser.

Niels Hansen was born in Denmark, and Eva Leota Hochstrasser was born in Salt Lake City, Utah. They arrived in Cardston, Alberta, in February 1889. They traveled in covered wagons, bringing horses and cattle with them. No children were born until after they arrived in Canada. The first child was born was Olver Rudolph Hansen, he married Fern Chandler. 2nd Frederick George he married Hattie Maughan. 3rd Mary Leota Hansen, married Oswald Steele. 4th Margaret Eliza Hansen, married George Oliver Low. 5th Evelyn Hansen, married David LeRoy Rollins. 6th Loreen Hansen, married Heber J. Matkin. 7th Ethel Marie Hansen, married William Royden Low. 8th Franklin Richard Hansen, married Lillian — 9th Louise Hansen, married Owen Leavitt Archibald. 10th Melvina Hansen, married William Henry Thode. 11th Nina Thora Hansen, married John M. Dolan.

Niels Hansen's homestead was four miles east of Cardston on the St. Mary's river. The present owner, The East Cardston Colony of Mennonites, raised cattle, cows, horses, pigs, chickens, and grain. They milked 25 cows by hand, set it in pans for the cream to rise, skimmed off the cream and made it into butter and freighted it to Lethbridge to market, 60 miles away by wagons and horses, while living on the homestead. Father was a very busy man. In June 1870 the decision was taken to organize a joint stock company to control the store and other manufacturing enterprises which by that time had arisen. The Cardston Company Limited, with $50,000 capital, was subscribed at this meeting. The articles of incorporation were drawn up by J. W. F. Maltzahn, later Premier of Alberta, the directors of this company were C. D. Card, John A. Woolf, Niels Hansen, S. P. Allen, and E. W. M. Walker.
Businesses that later became a part of this corporation were the cheese factory, the feiggy, and the Cardston Implement store. Officers and Directors were C. O. Card, John A. Woolf, Josiah Hammer, Samuel Matthias and Andrew Archibald.

Father and Mother entertained many of the Church Authorities from Salt Lake in their home on the Homestead, at one time President Wilford Woodruff, wife and counselors, George Cannon and Joseph F. Smith and Apostle Brigham Young, son of the late President. They were to take him for dinner and Father took them fishing in the St. Mary's River. President Woodruff caught eighteen fine large trout, to his great satisfaction.

On November 29, 1893 at a Quarterly Conference Apostle John W. Taylor was here to represent the General Authorities. The local authorities was sustained were Charles O. Card as President of the Alberta Mission and Niels Hansen as my father was sustained as President of the East Cardston Branch.

On December 11, 1893 at the home of Richard Pilling Sr. with Apostle John W. Taylor was here to represent the General Authorities, John A. Woolf and counselors Johannes Anderson and Henry L. Ninman, Elder C. A. Robinson, Joseph Told, Truman Leonard, Robert Leichman, Josiah T. Hammer, William Wood, Ephraim Harker, Andrew Archibald and the members of the Cardston Ward Choir. Apostle John W. Taylor conducted the meeting, Andrew Archibald led the Choir in singing the hymn, "Guide Us O Thou Great Jehovah." Elder Ephraim Harker gave the opening prayer, the Choir sang, "Oh Say What So 'Truth." Apostle Taylor stated they had met together to organize a Ward and officer it, and if requested, to name it. He stated that he with Brother Pilling and Bishop John A. Woolf had looked over the country and had selected land for a Townsite, at first sixteen families were to comprise the Ward. These were soon increased to 23 families and 116 souls. Richard Pilling, Niels Hansen, Ezra Hansen, John Gregson, Joseph Ellison, George W. Hudson, Hyrum Hansen, John W. Woolf, Alva Merkley, Peter Skriver, James W. Keal, Frank Bevens, Widow Porphy, John Pilling, Joseph Pilling and James Cook were heads of the families comprising the new Ward. It was moved by Apostle John W. Taylor and seconded by President Card that Richard Pilling be the Bishop of this Ward. Bishop Pilling was unanimously sustained. Apostle Taylor suggested "Actua" as the name of the Ward. Upon the motion of President Card this name was unanimously sustained. All the people then went to the Townsite and after singing by the Choir the ground was dedicated by Apostle John W. Taylor for the building.

December 17, 1893: Conference assembled in Cardifon. The Actua ward was completely organized with Richard Pilling Bishop, Niels Hansen 1st and John Pilling 2nd, first and second counselors, Thomas Owen King clerk, Joseph Ellison superintend of Sunday School with Richard A. T.D.S. missionaries, they left their homes and families at there own expense to teach the Gospel of Jesus Christ according to there belief.

On Sunday December 18-1898 the Actna Ward was reorganized with Niels Hansen as Bishop. He held this position until his death December 13-1902. Eva Leota Hansen was sustained President of the Actna Relief Society February 24-1901. counselors Lavonia Ellison, Emily Olsen and Annie Green secretary treasurer. Niels Hansen and Eva Leota Hansen had built a large nine room house in Actna and moved there Oct. 1899, at the death of Niels Hansen, Eva Leota was left with 11 children to care for. While on the homestead father fixed up a room in his home, with little two seater desks for a school for his children. He hired a school teacher to teach his children, and also in the large home in Actna until a school was built in Actna. Mother worked very hard to care for her family. She took in the school. Teachers when the school house was finished, it was a two room school house so she would have two teachers at a time, names of some of them was, Mr. Macdonald, Mr. Berton, Mr. Oswald Steele, Miss Hut, Miss Ball, Miss Scott, Miss Westwood, Miss Mercer, Miss Hall. Also children going to school, Mildred Gardner, and Larrie Cleveland, she took in sewing and would be up at 4 o'clock each morning and often she would be up until 10 o'clock or after sewing, she was a mid-wife and delivered many babies and would care for the sick, she never complained, but kept her mind on the needs of others and what she could do to help, this was her work as the President of the Relief Society, she taught us the guidance of prayers and the Virtue of life, to lose one virtue was only second to murder in sin. How thankful we are that she was so strong. We had a team of
